

We're here for you

Sometimes a little extra support goes a long way. At Auscare, we aim to enhance independence by keeping you or your loved ones active in the community and at home, to improve quality of life and help you reach your goals.

Whether you need in-home nursing services, assistance with getting out into the community or someone to help out with cooking and cleaning, we can help.

Our diverse range of carers are friendly, experienced and qualified. So we'll always be able to find the right match for you.

HOW CAN WE SUPPORT YOU?

Auscare Disability Services will work with you and your loved ones to choose what services you need, how and when you need support, and the people who will support you.

We offer a wide range of support services to help you maintain independence and achieve your goals. We can assist you with:

Enjoying time in the community or at home. Let us take you to the library or art gallery, or accompany you to a concert, sport game or community event. We can also assist with running errands, attending appointments and grocery shopping.

Living with friends, family or on your own. Auscare can assist you with domestic tasks including cooking, cleaning, gardening and laundry.

Learning and developing useful life skills. Develop your independence in catching public transport, budgeting, managing household tasks, or develop your confidence in using computers or smartphones.

Specialised care services. Auscare provides specialised and complex nursing care to people with high care needs.

Helping you look after yourself and stay healthy and active. We can support you with daily living tasks including cleaning, laundry, showering, toileting and personal hygiene. We can provide health, wellbeing and therapy services like food and fitness plans, Occupational Therapy and Physiotherapy. We also offer community nursing services for those who need some extra support.

Managing your NDIS plan. Auscare can provide assistance with support coordination and help you manage your NDIS plan.

My daughter and I adore Coral from Auscare as she is very dedicated and takes care of me like I am a family member, not just a client. Not only does she help with household chores, she goes out of her way to make me happy and picks roses from the garden for me to enjoy. She takes me for walks to improve my mobility and I look forward to our talks! Thank you Auscare for your service and dedication to improve my quality of life!
