Auscare's Sunny Side Retreat

Short and Medium Term Accommodation (STA/MTA) are funded under the NDIS and are designed to provide people with disabilities, and their carers, with a respite stay to relax and recharge.

Auscare's Sunny Side Retreat is more than just accommodation, our personalised support team will make it feel like your 'home away from home'.

On weekends we offer a range of activities including:

- trips out to various locations around city;
- on-site activities, such as art or gardening;
- or if participants would prefer, simply enjoy downtime at the centre.

NDIS Short Term Accommodation

Receive support with every day tasks in a safe and comfortable home when you stay in one of Auscare's NDIS Short and Medium Term Accommodation options. Our STA and MTA houses are located in vibrant communities, close to amenities, local attractions, and recreational activities, making it easy to enjoy everything you love most during your stay.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN SHORT AND LONG TERM ACCOMMODATION?

Short Term Accommodation (STA) is a type of NDIS housing designed to give you time away from your caring duties. This might be because you're taking some time away, or simply because you need to relax and recharge. Funding for Short Term Accommodation (STA) allows eligible NDIS participants to access up to 14 days away from their usual place of residence.

The NDIS usually funds up to 28 days of STA in a year, meaning you've got the flexibility to pick and choose when you want to use this type of accommodation. Your options are limitless.

Medium Term Accommodation (MTA) is for anyone who needs a place to stay while waiting for a long-term housing solution. This type of NDIS housing is usually funded for up to 90 days a year.

FLEXIBLE DELIVERY

We provide short-term, flexible support in your own home or we can help you find a property in an area of your choice.

IS SHORT OR MEDIUM TERM ACCOMMODATION RIGHT FOR ME?

While Medium Term Accommodation is suitable for those waiting to move into long-term housing solutions, Short Term Accommodation or respite may be suitable for you if:

- you can demonstrate that time away from your current home gives informal supports and/or your carer a break;
- you believe time away from home can help you achieve your goals outlined on your NDIS plan; or
- time away from home can help you meet new friends and try new activities.
